

Music on the Veranda

Summer Wednesdays in the Late Afternoon

Chatham Marconi Maritime Center is pleased to host Music on the Veranda, a summer-long series of informal free performances for your enjoyment, from 4:30 until 6:00 PM in front of Marconi's historic "Hotel Nautilus". Bring your chairs, blankets and picnic or snacks (we'll have a few available, too) to this family-friendly concert. Parking and lawn space are available on a first come, first served basis.

Member attendance is free. A donation of $5 per person or $15 per family is suggested to help support Chatham Marconi's mission and events like this.

Music on the Veranda is underwritten in part by several of our generous Business Sponsors.

June 26: Larry and Vic, Playing the Music of America

Larry & Vic, are a Cape-Cod based musical duo perform crowd pleasing acoustic pop and country favorites. Larry Goodrich of Chatham and Vic Roberts of Brewster blend vocal harmonies over classic songs by well-known acts including Paul Simon, the Eagles, Kenny Chesney, Toby Keith, Alan Jackson, and others. Come by and enjoy the catchy guitar rhythms and dobro riffs that have audiences across the Cape tapping their toes.

July 17: Performer To Be Announced

July 24: Kathleen Healy, Saltwater Songwriter

Kathleen appears regionally in southern New England as a solo performer and in collaboration with other local musicians. She draws from her experience of living and raising a family near the beach for many of her songs. Some say salt water runs through her veins. She writes from the heart and her honest lyrics and often poignant subject matter lend themselves to the unique quality of her voice.
